

Login with your LancasterSeminary.edu account to unlock these helpful features:

“Cart” is a temporary holding place for records you mark in a searching session. Contents are not saved from one session to the next.

Course Reserves are listed according to course number and name. Place items on hold if they are currently checked out.

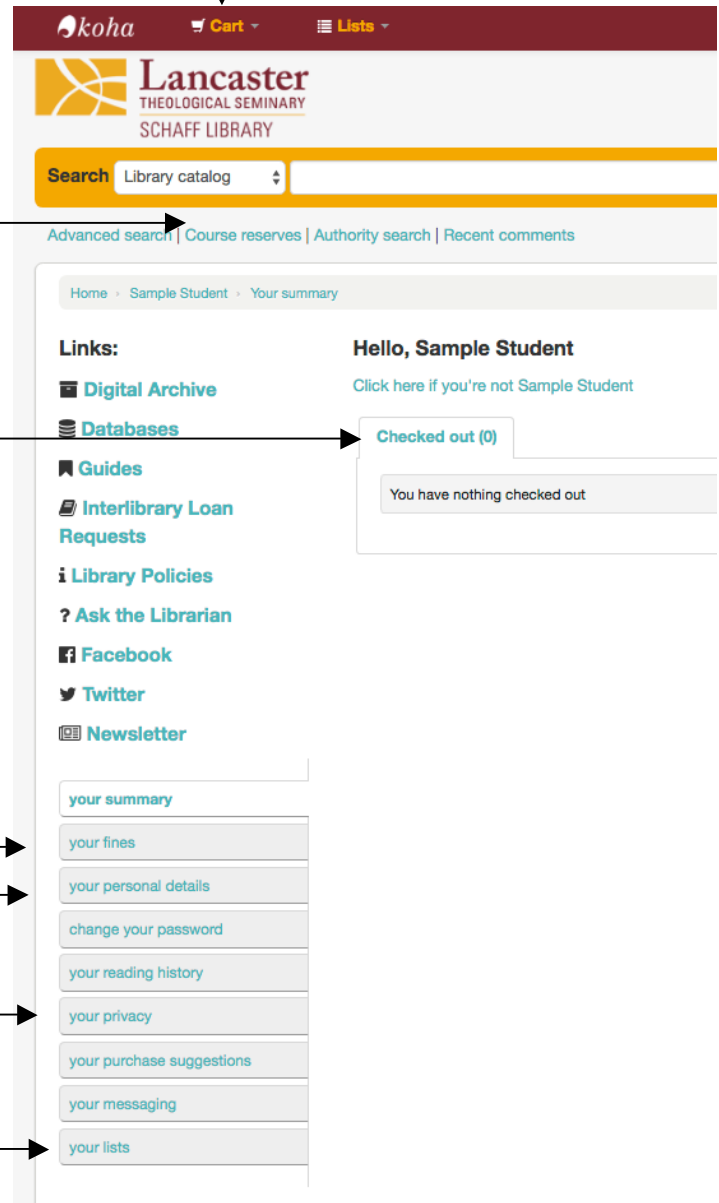

Items you have checked out will appear here, with the option to renew (if available).

View and pay fines here. Call or email us if you’d like to make a payment to your PaperCut account online

Update contact information here.

Make adjustments to your privacy settings here.

Collect and save items in “lists” while you research your assignments, projects, and papers. Manage your lists here or from anywhere on the site using the button at the top.

Additional Features:

- Share carts and lists with others
- Add your reviews as comments to library records
- Rate resources in the catalog